Önskar jag kunde säga detta till någon

Some lucky day

You came my way

And shook my joy and sorrow

With words so true

You coloured blue

The clear skies of tomorrow

I touch your hand

And once again

You gently say you need me

You're more than spring

The love you bring

Is laughter for every day

You're my only fascination

My sweet inspiration

Everything I hoped to be

You're the dawn that rises for me

My sea

You're my only fascination

My sweet inspiration

You're my tender harmony

If it rains, it's music I hear

Only because you are near

The words you say

In your own way

Can fill my heart with sunshine

Somehow I know

This love will grow

And that you'll always be mine

The morning dew

Can talk to you

When you awake each morning

The friendly wind

Will stop and sing

The moment you say hello

You're my only fascination
My sweet inspiration
Everything I hoped would be
You're the dawn that rises for me
My sea

You're my only fascination
My sweet inspiration
You're my tender harmony
If it rains, it's music I hear
