Hollywood Poker Nites

After a long nite of poker I saw before me, like in a vision when I was on my way to bed...

Calamity Jane playing poker with Superman and Mimi Rogers character from Someone to Watch over Me. She was real pissed off too (CJ), and said she didn't mind losing the next hand as long as Superman payed for the whiskey she drank during the nite (might be a loss for Superman).

Mimi, as always, waited out the competition and smart lady as she is won on some of her best hands of the nite.

Pamela Gidley with a 30's long cigarette in hand looking like she just had a date with Al Capone, just smiled and knew she was gonna be in the top (as always too!)

Superman suddenly didn't play for a while (all those away signs I guess) as he had to fly away to some emergency leaving me with the ladies (big smile)

Catastrophe, Disaster...I got the NUTS every damn hand...These are some of my favorite actors and I never wanna knock any of them. I laid down one or two hands secretly in a clandestine way, and played the ones that I thought they might have a chance on...in a corner sat a little girl playing for some money for food...I looked closer, it was the little matchstick girl, with a tear in her eye...

Of course I won and all this because I accidentally knocked Mimi out for real first time we played, with straight on flop!

...will haunt me forever...

I went off for bed and tried really hard not to dream this dream after I fell asleep...

(I guess these are the backsides of playing poker my friends, playing newbies you really don't want to knock out right away cause then they might not wanna learn and come back again or the stars that you wanna play a long time with. Good luck at the tables!)

Historien är naturligtvis påhittad men faktan och namnen stämmer, fast det var ett parti online, så kul kan man ha för under 50 spänn en helg för ett år sedan. Bordet bestod av: Dean Cain, Pamela Gidley, Mimi Rogers, Robin Weigert (Deadwoods CJ), jag och en annan glad amatör...jag var ett tag nr.89 i rankingen i norden men det höll en vecka eller så där. Man måste spela lika mycket som ni skriver poesi för att hålla sig uppe i rankingen. Det har inte så mycket med vunna turneringar, skicklighet eller tur att göra...

Away signs kommer upp om man tar en frivillig paus, nuts är den bästa möjliga handen, knock är att slå ut en annan spelare, småvinster kallas breadmoney, och att jag slog ut Mimi i första handen första gången vi spelade vid samma bord stämmer, någon man knappt vågade skriva hej till pga av sådan respekt LPWJ
