You Are My Angel

I've been waiting for you
My soulmate and my love
Heaven has sent you
Like an angel from above

You are like my eternal ray of sunshine
And I am so glad that you are mine
I hope that you, will stay here with me
Because your love, has set me free

My love for you grows by each day and every single time you look my way
My heart it stops and skips a beat
It's hard but I try my best to be discreet

We will grow and age together
It's you and me, now and forever
You and I, we were ment to be
They say love is blind but I can see
