Wishing for joy

Give me a wand, a magic one and I will make you laugh again-then I can smile

Give me wings, like in Peter Pan and I will fetch your dreams so I can rest

Give me the Godmother garments so I can make you a pumpkin carriage to carry us off

Give me the Winter Queens' Crown and I'll fill the world with glittery stars snowflakes on your cheek

Give me a wand, a magic one

To make us smile and laugh!
