Melody of life

This life is all that I've ever known

I cried the rain that fills the ocean wide

I'm living in a dying dream calling out to no avail

A dying scream makes no sound as I play my melody

Hitting a accord feeling the sound fill me with sadness

I tried to talk to you, here am I, lost and found

Said if you won't save me, please don't waste my time

Tell me, where do we draw the line?

This life is a masquerade, where I am the phantom

That dances to my melody of life
